

BFIA WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

vol 1

For the Week of 1/11/21

CURRENT NEWS

We are well stocked in non-perishable food items including: bread and peanut butter thanks to the generous donations from Forgotten Harvest

St Vincent de Paul's now has a food pantry at BFIA, distributing non-perishable foods once per week on Tuesday between 12pm – 2pm
For more info call St Vincent de Paul at 586-778-5100 - hit 4 and leave a message

Our Clothes Pantry contains winter items including: Winter coats, Hats, Gloves, Scarves, Hoodies, and Boots
We are in need of the above items, to donate call Dale at 248-214-2732

Embrace Grace - The Love Party on 1/9/21 was a huge success with over 10 women participating to complete the Love Boxes, these will be distributed to the local OBGYN's. The Leaders will be starting training Friday 1/15/21 at BFIA. We hope to form and start a class for Blooms in February
To Volunteer contact Jessica at 586-733-1429

UPCOMING EVENTS

Painting with a Verse starts back up on Tuesday 1/26/21 at 6:30pm – Still only $10 – We are limiting the seating to 20 people to ensure social distancing, also masks will be required – Spots are still available

The AA and NA meetings are doing great. They all are settling in nicely
Meeting Makers Make It - Mon thru Fri at 10am
Table Talk - Wed & Fri at 7pm
Women in Action - Fri at 8pm

ON THE HORIZON

BFIA currently owns a Ford 9 passenger van. We are working to obtain insurance to make the vehicle operational

AARC – We are still formulating strategy of how best to offer assistance to the addiction community – more details soon
To Volunteer contact Dale at 248-214-2732