

BFIA WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

Vol 3

For the Week of 2/01/21

CURRENT NEWS

Embrace Grace

Love Boxes have been distributed by Keisha (one of our Embrace Grace Leaders) and also to Mcrest

Also, We have been approved by Embrace Grace to hold our own classes for Blooms (single pregnant mom), so that means it's now go time. Getting Blooms will be top priority since without them we have no classes. If you know any single pregnant moms that would like to join this wonderful support group or for more info contact Jessica at 586-733-1429

St Vincent de Paul's

SVP is considering adding another day per week to distribute food They continue to distribute non-perishable foods once per week on Tuesday between 12pm – 2pm
For more info call St Vincent de Paul at 586-778-5100

Transportation

In talking with Mcrest, the use of the van for transporting residents from Mcrest to Sunday morning LOP worship service will be delayed until the Covid19 restrictions are relaxed

ARRC

This week ARRC will be contacting local Sober Living Houses to discuss how ARRC could assist them

The AA meetings continue both daily and 2 nights per week

The NA all women's meeting is doing well Friday night's

If you have an interest

Food and Clothes Pantries

We are still in need of Men's winter coats – to donate call Dale at 248-214-2732

The Outside food and clothes pantry is open 24/7

COMING UP

Sign up for February's Painting with a Verse on our website at <https://bfaithinaction.org/events/> Every 4th Tuesday at 6:30pm
$10 at the door

Due to Covid19 restrictions we are limiting seating to 20 people to ensure social distancing, and masks will be required